A Letter from the President:

Hi everyone.

Well it's late June and before we know it, it will be Christmas. Can't believe how fast time goes! Wish I could put the brakes on and slow it down but I can't.

Wow what a day we had on Saturday with our big brush Debbie Bonnewell! She sure is an awesome lady and a great teacher. Big thanks to Marge for keeping her busy after SDP convention so she could come and share her techniques with us and learning the w/oils. I saw everyone's pieces and from the looks of it we all enjoyed working with them. We also had a great turnout. I think we had around 15 ladies and one knitter (no need to mention names or explain lol). Anyway a great big thank you to Jeanette for another winner of a class!

Oops almost forgot ... we had a great assortment of foods for our potluck, yummy!

I am looking forward to next month. Jeanette switched it up and we have Darla coming in and will teach her lovely sunset picture from one of her photos. We can do it in watercolor or acrylic, your choice!

I'll be going to Chicago for a visit, very soon, and I'm sure you all have some fun summer plans, so whatever your plans, be safe and have fun! With the rain starting, heat and humidity, perfect time to do some painting. Enjoy!

Want to wish everyone's hubby a happy Fathers Day, no kids personally, I'm sure you have helped some child out in one way or another.

See you all in July !

Hugs

Linda

No June minutes since we did not have a meeting..just some great Show and Tells...Please check out the photos on our website.

Programs

Jeanette Seese

Programs: A big thank you goes out to Debbie Bonnewell for the wonderful seminar in June! Debbie is a stellar teacher. She presented a "new" medium for most of us—water soluble oils.

A fun, informative day was had by all!

The paints for the seminar were donated by Martin/F. Weber.

If you would like to send them a special thank you, Debbie sent us this contact information:

Philanthropic
Ellen Annibali

Our 2017 Philanthropic Project for K9 Partners For Patriots Service Dog Training Program is well underway! There are approximately four months left to leisurely paint, and bring in your ornaments for our chapter donation in November.

We are asking each of our NCDA chapter members to paint approximately "four Christmas ornaments" for our Veterans, to be presented to the dedicated Founder & President, Mary Peter and Volunteer Kellie, at our Saturday chapter meeting on Nov. 4th.

It would be great if we could all be in attendance and meet these fine ladies!

Please take a moment to browse through the variety of donated "wooden shapes" available at our clubhouse to help get you started, or find a particular shape for a pattern you may be have. If you need a pattern or idea, please call/text/email me anytime, and I will bring to our next chapter meeting.

Thank you to Bev Brockschmidt who brought in three special ornaments including a lovely wreath, a friendly snowman sled, and a yummy gingerbread man. Also, Thank you to Mary Davis who completed two more adorable ornaments, including a lady duck, and textured snowman complete with pebbles, bringing her total to 7! (Please check out our photos). Much appreciation to our members who grabbed more to paint last month, and those of you working behind the scenes. :) These will bring lots of smiles to this fine organization.

Note: Linda Duff is collecting small items to ship overseas to our active troops, so if you have someone in mind, or would like to donate snacks, playing cards, etc., please bring to our July NCDA Chapter Meeting, or check upcoming newsletters for which month(s) she will be sending a box. Thanks a bunch!
