Howdy!

Well once again we had a great meeting and our class taught by Pamela Varricchio was great! A big thank you! I've finished mine and was in Tampa yesterday so I went to Ikea and bought the stuffing for the pillow and also pick up a deeper pink to do another one! IKEA is a great place to shop. The pillow case was $4.00 and the stuffing was $3.00. Where else can you get a pillow for $7.00 hand made? In July we will have a great time and yummy food, as you all know from the email Pat Otto sent out, for those who weren't at the meeting. That will be a great time, so bring your dish to pass and your appetite, we are gonna have a hoedown! Can't believe it's almost the 4th of July and the heat is on! Good time for everyone to stay inside and get some painting done. I know I'm starting to think about Christmas, so I'm going to start working on Mudding and alcohol ink ornaments. Just sold 4 to a lady for a charity raffle. So I've gotta get working.

I just wanted to wish you all a very Happy 4th of July. Have a great day and if your family does fireworks please be safe!

Enjoy the day!

Linda
 Hugs,
Linda

SHDA Meeting Minutes

June 2, 2018

PRESIDENT: Linda Duff welcomed everyone and wished them a Happy Memorial Day weekend.

PROGRAM: Jeanette Seese announced that the teacher for today's program is Pam Varricchio. Our July meeting will be a western theme. Pat Otto purchased western hats and scarfs that were distributed. We will have a contest for best decorated hat. If you were not at the meeting to get a hat, purchase one at the dollar store or use one you have. Jeanette will also bring some decorative items for decorating the hat during the meeting. Please bring a glue gun. Please bring a dish to share with keeping in mind the western theme, i.e. cornbread, beans, etc. Each dish should serve 6-8. We will also have a short program. It will be free to all members. Please bring an 8 x 10 or surface comparable to that size. You can even have a large flower pot. Please paint the background either black or a dark blue. The painting will be a silhouette on a sunset. You can pick any silhouette you want or Pat will bring one of a heron as requested. We will only need bright red, bright orange, bright yellow and white paints.

SECRETARY & TREASURER: Both reports were published in the minutes and were accepted as written.

OLD NEWS: A reminder that our Christmas party this year is being hosted by Dottie Ptaszynski. Pam Varricchio volunteered to help if needed.

(minutes cont'd)

There was a short discussion on whether we were going to paint ornaments this year for the K-9 Patriots.

Carol Hechler thanked all of those that have donated toward the roof.

Eileen Peters volunteered to be second back-up photographer for our meetings.

NEW NEWS: Linda Duff addressed the group about her problem of finding where to sign up for the upcoming classes on the website.

After a bit of discussion, it was decided that we would not be required to sign up in advance. Pat Otto has already addressed this on the website. The teachers will just prepare for 15 for each class.

SHOW & TELL: It is always so much fun to see all the beautiful paintings from our group. Also educational.

Respectfully submitted,
Lois Owens
